Sundays & Holy Days

Vespers with Gregorian Chant for Sundays & Holy Days: newly typeset, based on The Liber Usualis, edited by the Benedictines of Solemnes (Desclee Company, 1961).

First edition, 3 December 2015.

Second edition, 15 August 2016.

Third edition, 12 November 2016. Added Prayers at 40 Hours to the Appendix.

Many thanks to Elie Roux for creating Gregorio, to all the people answering questions on the Gregorio forums, to Olivier Berton for creating GregoBase (<http://gregobase.selapa.net>) which makes it much easier to find all the chant that Andrew Hinkley and others have contributed to the public domain. Also many thanks to my brother Benjamin, whose website (<http://bbloomf.github.io/jgabc>) makes it incredibly easy to typeset the psalms and substantially easier than otherwise to typeset Gregorian chant with Gregorio.

 Gabriel, show pity, to us sinners.

The puncta cava (open notes) indicate where a male chorus can sing a drone. These drones are always a fifth apart on either the RE and the LA or the DO and the SOL. Then for the sections with a brace above, instead of droning, the melody is sung in parallel, either a fifth above or below. The drone should only be interrupted at the double bars.

Hail, holy Queen, Mother of mercy; hail, our life, our sweetness, and our hope! To thee do we cry, poor banished children of Eve; to thee do we send up our sighs, mourning and weeping in this vale of tears. Turn then, most gracious advocate, thine eyes of mercy towards us; and after this our exile, show unto us the blessed fruit of thy womb, Jesus. O clement, O loving, O sweet Virgin Mary.

1. O blest Creator of the Light!
Who dost the dawn from darkness
bring: And, framing Nature's depth and height, Didst with the light thy work begin;

2. Who gently blending eve with morn, And morn with eve, didst call

And purify ourselves within.

all his meekness.

2. How he swore to the Lord, he vowed a vow to the God of Jacob:

3. If I shall enter into the tabernacle of my house: if I shall go up into the bed wherein I lie:

4. If I shall give sleep to my eyes,
or slumber to my eyelids,

5. Or rest to my temples: until I find out a place for the Lord, a tabernacle for the God of Jacob.

6. Behold we have heard of it in Ephrata: we have found it in the fields of the wood.

7. We will go into his tabernacle:
we will adore in the place where his feet stood.

8. Arise, O Lord, into thy resting place: thou and the ark, which thou hast sanctified.

9. Let thy priests be clothed with justice: and let thy saints rejoice.

10. For thy servant David's sake, turn not away the face of thy anointed.

11. The Lord hath sworn truth to
David, and he will not make it void:

GOD, who at sundry times and in

Oh, call us to our native land, From this our exile, back again.

5. And ye, O choirs of virgins chaste! Receive us to your seats on high; With hermits whom the desert waste Sent up of old into the sky.

APPENDIX

Prayers for the Forty Hours

At the Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament :

After Mass, the Celebrant, at the sedilia, having taken off the chasuble and maniple and put on a cope, puts incense into two thuribles, giving no blessing.

Kneeling on the lowest step of the altar, he incenses the Blessed Sacrament. Then he receives the humeral veil.

The Procession follows, while Pange, lingua is sung.

After the Procession, the Deacon places the Blessed Sacrament on the throne, the Celebrant meanwhile putting off the humeral veil. Tantum ergo Sacraméntum is then sung; at Genitóri the Blessed Sacrament is incensed in the usual way.

When Tantum ergo is ended, Panem de celo etc. is not said, but the Cantors at once begin the Litany of the Saints, p. 459.

On the day of Deposition :

After Mass, the Celebrant, at the sedilia, takes off chasuble and maniple, and puts on a cope. The Ministers lay aside their maniples; and all return to the altar.

The Litany of the Saints, p. 459, is sung, and the following prayer as far as the ŷ. Dómine exáudi oratióem meam inclusive.

The Celebrant stands and puts incense into two thuribles, giving no blessing. He incenses the Blessed Sacrament, and receives the humeral veil.

The Procession follows while Pange, lingua is sung.

After the Procession the Blessed Sacrament is placed on the altar, and Tantum ergo is sung. At Genitóri the Celebrant puts incense into a thurible, and incenses the Blessed Sacrament.

At the end of Tantum ergo there follows Panem de celo etc. The Celebrant stands, and (omitting Dóminus vobíscum) sings all the prescribed prayers. Afterwards he again kneels down and sings the ŷ. Dómine exáudi etc. The Cantors sing Exáudiat nos etc., and the Celebrant adds Fidélium ánimæ etc. on a lower note.

Finally the Celebrant receives the humeral veil and gives Benediction in the usual way.

1. Sing, my tongue, the Saviour's glory Of His Flesh the mystery sing; Of His Blood all price exceeding, Shed by our immortal King, Destined for the world's redemption From a noble womb to spring.

2. Of a pure and spotless Virgin, Born for us on earth below, He, as Man with man conversing, Stayed the seeds of truth to sow. Then He closed in solemn order Wondrously His life of woe.

3. On the night of that last supper, Seated with His chosen band, He, the paschal victim eating, First fulfils the Law's command; Then as food to all His brethren Gives Himself with His own Hand.

4. Word made Flesh the bread of nature By His word to Flesh He turns; Wine into His Blood He changes: What though sense no change discerns, Only be the heart in earnest, Faith her lesson quickly learns.

5. Down in adoration falling, Lo, the sacred Host we hail, Lo, o'er ancient forms departing Newer rites of grace prevail: Faith for all defects supplying, Where the feeble senses fail.

6. To the everlasting Father And the Son who reigns on high With the Holy Ghost proceeding Forth from each eternally, Be salvation, honour, blessing, Might and endless majesty. Amen.

O GOD, who through the fruitful virginity of blessed Mary hast given to mankind the rewards of eternal salvation, grant, we beseech Thee, that we may experience her intercession for us through whom we were made worthy to receive the Author of life, our Lord Jesus Christ Thy Son.

GRANT to us Thy servants, we beseech Thee, O Lord God, that we may enjoy perpetual health of mind and body: and through the intercession of blessed Mary ever Virgin be delivered from present sorrow and possess eternal joy.

O GOD, who didst vouchsafe to give joy to the world through the Resurrection of Thy Son our Lord Jesus Christ: grant, we beseech Thee, that, through His Mother, the Virgin Mary, we may obtain the joys of everlasting life.

ALmighty, everlasting God, who hast dominion over the living and the dead, and art merciful to all, of whom Thou fore-knowest that they will be Thine by faith and good works: we humbly beseech Thee, that they for whom we intend to pour forth our prayers, whether this present world still detain them in the flesh, or the world to come hath already received them out of their bodies, may, through the intercession of all Thy Saints, by the clemency of Thy goodness, obtain the remission of all their sins. Through our Lord Jesus Christ Thy Son, Who liveth and reigneth with Thee in the unity of The Holy Spirit, God, world without end. R̃. Amen.

The Celebrant kneels down and sings :
