he hath borne the yoke from his youth. Jod. He shall sit solitary, and hold his peace: because he hath taken it up upon himself. Jod. He shall put his mouth in the dust, if so be there may be hope. Jod. He shall give his cheek to him that striketh him, he shall be filled with reproaches. Aleph. How is the gold become dim, the finest colour is changed, the stones of the sanctuary are scattered in the top of every street? Beth.

The noble sons of Sion and they that were clothed with the best gold: how are they esteemed as earthen vessels, the work of the potter's hands? Ghimel. Even the sea monsters have drawn out the breast, they have given suck to their young: the daughter of my people is cruel, like the ostrich in the desert. Daleth. The tongue of the sucking child hath stuck to the roof of his mouth for thirst: the little ones have asked for bread, and there was none to break it unto them. He. They that fed delicately have died in the streets; they that were brought up in scarlet have embraced the dung. Vau. And the iniquity of the daughter of my people is made greater than the sin of Sodom, which was overthrown in a moment, and hands took nothing in her. Jerusalem! Jerusalem! Return unto the Lord thy God.

Jerúsa-lem, Je-rúsa-lem, convértere ad Dóminum Dé-um tú-um.

Remember, O Lord, what is come upon us: consider and behold our reproach. Our inheritance is turned to aliens: our houses to strangers. We are become orphans without a father, our mothers are as widows. We have drunk our water for money: we have bought our wood for a price. We were dragged by our necks, we were weary and no rest was given us. We have given our hand to Egypt and to the Assyrians, that we might be satisfied with bread. Our fathers have sinned, and are no more: and we have borne their iniquities. Servants have ruled over us: there was none to redeem us out of their hand. We fetched our bread at the peril of our lives, because of the sword in the desert. Our skin was burnt as an oven, by reason of the violence of the famine. They oppressed the women in Sion, and the virgins in the cities of Juda. Jerusalem! Jerusalem! Return unto the Lord thy God.

LESSON IV

ACCÉDET homo ad cor altum, et exaltábitur Deus. Illi dixerunt : Quis nos videbit? Defecerunt scrutántes scrutatiónes, consília mala. Accéssit homo ad ipsa consília, passus est se tenéri ut homo. Non enim tenerétur nisi homo, aut viderétur nisi homo, aut cæderétur nisi homo, aut crucifigerétur aut more-rétur nisi homo. Accéssit ergo homo ad illas omnes passiónes, quæ in illo nihil valérent, nisi esset homo. Sed si ille non esset homo, non liberarétur homo. Accéssit homo ad cor altum, id est, cor secrétum, objíciens aspéctibus húmanis hóminem, servans intus Deum : celans formam Dei, in qua æquális est Patri, et ófferens formam servi, qua minor est Patre.

On Ps. 63, at verse 7

MAN shall come to a deep mind and God shall be exalted. They said, Who shall see us? The diligent searchers out of evil counsels have failed. A Man came to these very counsels, and suffered Himself to be taken, as Man. For He had not been taken at all, unless Man, or seen, unless Man, or smitten, unless Man, or crucified, or died, unless Man. Man therefore attained unto all these sufferings, which had not availed against Him, unless He had been a Man. But if He had not been Man, man had not been redeemed. Man came to a deep mind, that is, a secret mind; showing Manhood to men, and keeping Godhead within; veiling the form of God, wherein He is Equal to the Father, and presenting the form of a servant, inferior to the Father.

So they said to Pilate, “That seducer said, while still alive: After three days I shall rise again. Command therefore that the sepulchre be guarded until the third day, lest His disciples come and steal Him away, and say unto the people: He is risen from the dead; and the last error shall be worse than the first.” Pilate said to them: Ye have a guard; go, and guard him as ye know. So they went and secured the sepulchre with guards, sealing up the stone.

LESSON VI

POSUÉRUNT custódes mílites ad sepúlcrum. Concússa terra Dóminus resurrexit : mirácula facta sunt tália circa sepúlcrum, ut et ipsi mílites, qui custódes advénerant, testes fierent, si vellent vera nuntiáre. Sed avartía illa, quæ captivávit discípulum cómitem Christi, captivávit et mílitem custódem sepúlcri. Damus, ínquiunt, vobis pecúniam : et dícite quia vobis dormiéntibus venérunt discípuli ejus, et abstulérunt eum. Vere defecérunt scrutántes scrutatiónes. Quid est quod dixisti, o infélix astútia? Tantúmne déseris lucem consílii pietátis, et in profúnda versútiae demérgeris, ut hoc dicas : Dícite quia vobis dormiéntibus venérunt discípuli ejus, et abstulérunt eum? Dormiéntes testes ádhibes : vere tu ipse obdormísti, qui scrutándo tália defecísti.

THEY set a watch of soldiers over the sepulchre. The earth shook and the Lord arose. Such wonders were wrought about the sepulchre that the very soldiers who kept watch might be witnesses thereto, would they declare the truth. But the same love of money that enslaved that disciple and companion of Christ, enslaved also the soldier guarding the sepulchre. "We will give you money," said the chief priests, "and say ye that His disciples came while ye slept and stole Him away." Verily, the diligent searchers out have failed. What didst thou say, O wretched craft? Wast thou indeed so utterly void of the light of godly wisdom, and confounded in the bottomless pit of thine own falsehood as to speak thus: Say ye that His disciples came while ye slept, and stole Him away? Thou callest upon sleeping witnesses: surely thou wast asleep thyself, who has failed in searching out so notable a matter.

LESSON VII

CHRISTUS assístens Póntifex futurórum bonórum, per ámplius et perféctius tabernáculum, non manufáctum, id est, non huius creatiónis : neque per sánguinem hircórum, aut vitulórum, sed per próprium sánguinem introívit semel in Sancta, æténa redemp-tióne invénta. Si enim sanguis hircórum et taurórum, et cínis vítulæ aspérsus inquinátos sanctíficat ad emundatióem carnis : quanto magis sanguis Christi, qui per Spíritum Sanc-tum semetípsum óbtulit immaculátum Deo, emundábit consciéntiam nostram ab opéribus mórtuis, ad serviéndum Deo vivénti?

Chap. 9, 11-22

CHRIST, being come a high priest of the good things to come, by a greater and more perfect tabernacle not made with hands, that is, not of this creation: Neither by the blood of goats, nor of calves, but by His own blood, entered once into the holies, having obtained eternal redemption. For if the blood of goats and of oxen, and the ashes of a heifer being sprinkled, sanctify such as are defiled, to the cleansing of the flesh: How much more shall the Blood of Christ, who by the Holy Ghost offered Himself spotless unto God, cleanse our conscience from dead works, to serve the living God?

ET ideo novi testaménti mediátor est : ut, morte intercedente, in redemptiōnem eárum prævaricatiōnum, quæ erant sub prióri testaménto, repromissiōnem accípiant, qui vocáti sunt æternæ hereditátis. Ubi enim testaméntum est : mors necesse est intercedat testatóriis. Testaméntum enim in mórtuis confirmátum est : alióquin nondum valet, dum vivit qui testátus est. Unde nec primum quidem sine ságuine dedicátum est.

AND therefore He is the Mediator of the New Testament: that by means of His Death, for the redemption of those transgressions, which were under the former Testament, they that are called may receive the promise of eternal inheritance. For where there is a testament, the death of the testator must of necessity intervene. For a testament comes into force through death: otherwise it is as yet of no strength, whilst the testator liveth. Whereupon neither was the first indeed dedicated without blood.

2. I sought for the residue of my years. I said: I shall not see the Lord God in the land of the living.

3. I shall behold man no more, nor the inhabitant of rest.

4. My generation is at an end, and it is rolled away from me, as a shepherd's tent.

What shall I say, or what shall he answer for me, whereas he himself hath done it?

10. I will recount to thee all my years in the bitterness of my soul.

11. O Lord, if man's life be such, and the life of my spirit be in such things as these, thou shalt
