The zeal of Thy house hath consumed me, and the reproaches of them that reproach Thee, fell upon me.

Psalm 68.

Flex : tempésta aquæ, †

2. Infixus sum in limo profúndi : * et non est substántia.

3. Veni in altitúdinem maris : * et tempésta demérsit me.

4. Laborávi clamans, raucae factæ sunt fauces meæ : * defecérunt óculi mei, dum spero in Deum meum.

5. Multiplicáti sunt super capíllos cápitis mei, * qui odérunt me gratis.

6. Confortáti sunt qui persecúti sunt me inimíci mei injúste : * quæ non rápui, tunc exsolvébam.

7. Deus, tu scis insipiéntiam meam : * et delícta mea a te non sunt abscóndita.

8. Non erubéscant in me qui expéctant te, Dómine, * Dómine virtútum

9. Non confundántur super me * qui quærunte te, Deus Israël.

1. Save me, O God: for the waters are come in even unto my soul.

2. I stick fast in the mire of the deep: and there is no sure standing.

3. I am come into the depth of the sea: and a tempest hath overwhelmed me.

4. I have laboured with crying; my jaws are become hoarse: my eyes have failed, whilst I hope in my God.

5. They are multiplied above the hairs of my head, who hate me without cause.

6. My enemies are grown strong who have wrongfully persecuted me: then did I pay that which I took not away.

7. O God, thou knowest my foolishness;
and my offences are not hidden from thee.

8. Let not them be ashamed for me, who look for thee, O Lord, the Lord of hosts.

10. Quóniam propter te sustínui oppróbrium : * opéruit confúsio faciem meam.

11. Extráneus factus sum frátribus meis, * et peregrínus filiis matris meæ.

12. Quóniam zelus domus tuæ comédit me : * et oppróbria exprobrántium tibi cecidérunt super me.

13. Et opéruí in jejúnio ánimam meam : * et factum est in oppróbrium mihi.

14. Et pósui vestiméntum meum cili-cium : * et factus sum illis in parábolam.

15. Advérsus me loquebántur, qui sedébant in porta : * et in me psallébant qui bibébant vinum.

16. Ego vero oratiónem meam ad te, Dómine : * tempus benepláciti, Deus.

17. In multitudíne misericórdiæ tuæ exáudi me, * in veritáte salútis tuæ :

18. Eripe me de luto, ut non infigar : * líbera me ab iis, qui odérunt me, et de profúndis aquárum.

19. Non me demérgat tempésta aquæ, † neque absórbeat me profúndum : * neque úrgeat super me púteus os suum.

20. Exáudi me, Dómine, quóniam benígna est misericórdia tua : * secúndum multitudínem miseratiónum tuárum respice in me.

21. Et ne avértas faciem tuam a púero tuo : * quóniam tríbulor, velóciter exáudi me.

22. Inténde ánimæ meæ, et líbera eam : * propter inimícos meos éripe me.

23. Tu scis impropérium meum, et confusiónem meam, * et reveréntiam meam.

24. In conspéctu tuo sunt omnes qui tríbulant me : * impropérium exspectávit cor meum, et misériam.

9. Let them not be confounded on my account, who seek thee, O God of Israel.

10. Because for thy sake I have borne reproach; shame hath covered my face.

11. I am become a stranger to my brethren, and an alien to the sons of my mother.

12. For the zeal of thy house hath eaten me up: and the reproaches of them that reproached thee are fallen upon me.

13. And I covered my soul in fasting: and it was made a reproach to me.

14. And I made haircloth my garment: and I became a byword to them.

15. They that sat in the gate spoke against me: and they that drank wine made me their song.

16. But as for me, my prayer is to thee, O Lord; for the time of thy good pleasure, O God.

17. In the multitude of thy mercy hear me, in the truth of thy salvation.

18. Draw me out of the mire, that I may not stick fast: deliver me from them that hate me, and out of the deep waters.

19. Let not the tempest of water drown me, nor the deep swallow me up: and let not the pit shut her mouth upon me.

20. Hear me, O Lord, for thy mercy is kind; look upon me according to the multitude of thy tender mercies.

21. And turn not away thy face from thy servant: for I am in trouble, hear me speedily.

22. Attend to my soul, and deliver it: save me because of my enemies.

23. Thou knowest my reproach, and my confusion, and my shame.

24. In thy sight are all they that afflict me; my heart hath expected reproach and misery.

25. And I looked for one that would grieve together with me, but there was none: and for one that would comfort me, and I found none.

26. And they gave me gall for my food, and in my thirst they gave me vinegar to drink.

27. Let their table become as a snare before them, and a recompense, and a stumblingblock.

28. Let their eyes be darkened that they see not; and their back bend thou down always.

29. Pour out thy indignation upon them: and let thy wrathful anger take hold of them.

30. Let their habitation be made desolate: and let there be none to dwell in their tabernacles.

31. Because they have persecuted him whom thou hast smitten; and they have added to the grief of my wounds.

32. Add thou iniquity upon their iniquity: and let them not come into thy justice.

33. Let them be blotted out of the book of the living; and with the just let them not be written.

34. I am poor and sorrowful: thy salvation, O God, hath set me up.

35. I will praise the name of God with a canticle: and I will magnify him with praise.

36. And it shall please God better than a young calf, that bringeth forth horns and hoofs.

37. Let the poor see and rejoice: seek ye God, and your soul shall live.

38. For the Lord hath heard the poor: and hath not despised his prisoners.

39. Let the heavens and the earth praise him; the sea, and every thing that creepeth therein.

40. For God will save Sion, and the cities of Juda shall be built up.

41. And they shall dwell there, and acquire it by inheritance.

42. Et semen servórum ejus possidébit habitábunt in ea.

42. And the seed of his servants shall possess it; and they that love his name shall dwell therein.

Psalm 69.

2. Confundántur et revereántur, * qui

4. Avertántur statim erubescéntes, * qui

5. Exsúltent et læténtur in te omnes qui

6. Ego vero egénus, et pauper sum : *
Deus, ádjua me.

7. Adjútor meus, et liberátor meus es tu : * Dómine, ne moréris.

1. O God, come to my assistance; O Lord, make haste to help me.

2. Let them be confounded and ashamed that seek my soul:

3. Let them be turned backward, and blush for shame that desire evils to me:

4. Let them be presently turned away blushing for shame that say to me: 'Tis well, 'tis well.

5. Let all that seek thee rejoice and be glad in thee; and let such as love thy salvation say always:
The Lord be magnified.

6. But I am needy and poor; O God, help me.

7. Thou art my helper and my deliverer: O
Lord, make no delay.

Repeat antiphon.

1. In thee, O Lord, I have hoped, let me never be put to confusion: deliver me in thy justice, and rescue me.

2. Incline thy ear unto me, and save me.

3. Be thou unto me a God, a protector, and a place of strength: that thou mayst make me safe.

4. For thou art my firmament and my refuge.

5. Deliver me, O my God, out of the hand of the sinner, and out of the hand of the transgressor of the law and of the unjust.

6. For thou art my patience, O Lord: my hope, O Lord, from my youth.

7. By thee have I been confirmed from the womb: from my mother's womb thou art my protector.

8. Of thee shall I continually sing: I am become unto many as a wonder, but thou art a strong helper.

9. Let my mouth be filled with praise, that I may sing thy glory; thy greatness all the day long.

10. Cast me not off in the time of old age: when my strength shall fail, do not thou forsake me.

11. For my enemies have spoken against me; and they that watched my soul have consulted to-

23. Multiplicasti magnificentiam tuam : * et conversus consolatus es me.

24. Nam et ego confitebor tibi in vasis psalmi veritatem tuam : * Deus, psallam tibi in cithara, Sanctus Israël.

25. Exsultabunt labia mea cum cantávero tibi : * et anima mea, quam redemisti.

gether,

12. Saying: God hath forsaken him: pursue and take him, for there is none to deliver him.

13. O God, be not thou far from me: O my God, make haste to my help.

14. Let them be confounded and come to nothing that detract my soul; let them be covered with confusion and shame that seek my hurt.

15. But I will always hope; and will add to all thy praise.

16. My mouth shall shew forth thy justice; thy salvation all the day long.

17. Because I have not known learning, I will enter into the powers of the Lord: O Lord, I will be mindful of thy justice alone.

18. Thou hast taught me, O God, from my youth: and till now I will declare thy wonderful works.

19. And unto old age and grey hairs: O God, forsake me not,

20. Until I shew forth thy arm to all the generation that is to come:

21. Thy power, and thy justice, O God, even to the highest great things thou hast done: O God, who is like to thee?

22. How great troubles hast thou shewn me, many and grievous: and turning thou hast brought me to life, and hast brought me back again from the depths of the earth:

23. Thou hast multiplied thy magnificence; and turning to me thou hast comforted me.

24. For I will also confess to thee thy truth with the instruments of psaltery: O God, I will sing to thee with the harp, 25. My lips shall greatly rejoice, when I shall sing to thee; and my soul which thou hast redeemed.

26. Sed et lingua mea tota die meditabitur justitiam tuam : * cum confúsi et revériti fúerint, qui quærunt mala mihi.

26. Yea and my tongue shall meditate on thy justice all the day; when they shall be confounded and put to shame that seek evils to me.

Aleph. How doth the city sit solitary that was full of people! how is the mistress of the Gentiles become as a widow: the princess of provinces made tributary! Beth. Weeping she hath wept in the night, and her tears are on her cheeks: there is none to comfort her among all them that were dear to her: all her friends have despised her, and are become her enemies. Ghimel. Juda hath removed her dwelling place because of her affliction, and the greatness of her bondage: she hath dwelt among the nations, and she hath found no rest: all her persecutors have taken her in the midst of straits. Daleth. The ways of Sion mourn, because there are none that come to the solemn feast: all her gates are broken down: her priests sigh: her virgins are in affliction, and she is oppressed with bitterness. He. Her adversaries are become her lords, her enemies are enriched: because the Lord hath spoken against her for the multitude of her iniquities: her children are led into captivity: before the face of the oppressor. Jerusalem, Jerusalem, return to the Lord thy God.

Vau. And from the daughter of Sion all her beauty is departed: her princes are become like rams that find no pastures: and they are gone away without strength before the face of the pursuer. Zain. Jerusalem hath remembered the days of her affliction, and prevarication of all her desirable things which she had from the days of old, when her people fell in the enemy's hand, and there was no helper: the enemies have seen her, and have mocked at her sabbaths.

Heth. Jerusalem hath grievously sinned, therefore is she become unstable: all that honoured her have despised her, because they have seen her shame: but she sighed and turned backward. Teth. Her filthiness is on her feet, and she hath not remembered her end: she is wonderfully cast down, not having a comforter: behold, O Lord, my affliction, because the enemy is lifted up. Jerusalem, Jerusalem, return to the Lord thy God.

Jod. The enemy hath put out his hand to all her desirable things: for she hath seen the Gentiles enter into her sanctuary, of whom thou gavest commandment that they should not enter into thy church. Caph. All her people sigh, they seek bread: they have given all their precious things for food to relieve the soul: see, O Lord, and consider, for I am become vile. Lamed. O all ye that pass by the way, attend, and see if there be any sorrow like to my sorrow: for he hath made a vintage of me, as the Lord spoke in the day of his fierce anger. Mem. From above he hath sent fire into my bones, and hath chastised me: he hath spread a net for my feet, he hath turned me back: he hath made me desolate, wasted with sorrow all the day long. Nun. The yoke of my iniquities hath watched: they are folded together in his hand, and put upon my neck: my strength is weakened: the Lord hath delivered me into their hand out of which I am not able to rise. Jerusalem, Jerusalem, return to the Lord thy God.

LESSON IV

EXAUDI, Deus, oratiónem meam, et ne despéxeris deprecationem meam : inténde mihi, et exáudi me. Satagéntis, sollíciti, in tribulatióne pósito, verba sunt ista. Orat multa pátiens, de malo liberári desíderans. Súperest ut videámus in quo malo sit : et cum dícere cœperit, agnoscámus ibi nos esse : ut comunicáta tribulatióne, conjungámus oratió-nem. Contristátus sum, inquit, in exercitatió-ne mea, et conturbátus sum. Ubi contristátus? ubi conturbátus? In exercitatióne mea, inquit. Hómines malos, quos pátitur, commemorátus est : eamdémque passiónem malórum hómi-num, exercitatiónem suam dixit. Ne putétis gratis esse malos in hoc mundo, et nihil boni de illis ágere Deum. Omnis malus aut ídeo vi-vit, ut corrigátur; aut ídeo vivit, ut per illum bonus exerceátur.

On Ps. 54, at verse 1

HEAR my prayer, O God, and despise not my petition: attend to me and hear me. These are the words of a man travailing, anxious, and troubled. He prayeth in the midst of much suffering, longing to be rid of his affliction. Our part is to see what his affliction was, and when he hath told us, to acknowledge that we also suffer therefrom; so that, shar-ing in his trouble, we may also join in his prayer. I mourn in my exercise, he says, and am troubled. Wherein mourned he? Wherein was he troubled? He saith: In my exercise. He hath in mind the wicked that cause him affliction, and this suffer-ing which came upon him at the hands of wicked men, he hath called his exer-cise. Think not that wicked men are in this world for nothing, and that God doth no good with them. Every wicked man liveth, either to repent, or to exercise the righteous.

LESSON V

UTINAM ergo qui nos modo exércent, convertántur, et nobíscum exerceántur : tamen quámdiu ita sunt ut exérceant, non eos odérimus : quia in eo quod malus est quis eórum, utrum usque in finem perseveratúrus sit, ignorámus. Et plerúmque cum tibi vidéris odísse inimícum, fratrem odísti, et nescis. Diábolus, et ángeli ejus in Scriptúris sanctis manifestáti sunt nobis, quod ad ignem ætérnum sint destináti. Ipsórum tantum desperánda est corréctio, contra quos habémus ocúltam luctam : ad quam luctam nos armat Apóstolus, dicens : Non est nobis colluctátio advérsus carnem et sánguinem : id est, non advérsus hómines, quos vidétis, sed advérsus príncipes, et potestátes, et rectóres mundi, tenebrárum harum. Ne forte cum dixísset, mundi, intelligeres dámones esse rectóres cæli et terræ, mundi dixit, tenebrárum harum : mundi dixit amatórum mundi : mundi dixit, impiórum et iniquórum : mundi dixit, de quo dicit Evangélíum : Et mundus eum non cognóvit.

WOULD, therefore, that they who now exercise us were converted and exercised with us! Yet, while they are as they are, and exercise us, we will not hate them: for we know not of any one of them whether he will endure to the end in his sin. Yea, oftentimes, when thou deemest that thou hatest thine enemy, thou hatest thy brother, and knowest it not. The Holy Scriptures show us that the devil and his angels are already damned unto everlasting fire: their repentance alone is hopeless, against whom we wage a hidden strife. For which strife the Apostle would arm us, saying: We wrestle not against flesh and blood, (that is, not against men whom we see,) but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this world. He saith not the rulers of this world, lest perchance thou shouldest deem that devils are the lords of heaven and earth; what he doth say is, rulers of the darkness of this world, of that world which they love who love the world, of that world wherein the ungodly and unrighteous do prosper, of that world, of which the Gospel saith: And the world knew Him not.

LESSON VI

QUÓNIAM vidi iniquitatem et contradic-tiónem in civitate. Atténde glóriam crucis ipsíus. Jam in fronte regum crux illa fi-xa est, cui inimíci insultavérunt. Efféctus pro-bávit virtútem : dómuit orbem non ferro, sed ligno. Lignum crucis contuméliis dignum vi-sum est inimícis, et ante ipsum lignum stan-tes caput agitábant, et dicébant : Si Fílius Dei est, descéndat de cruce. Extendébat ille ma-nus suas ad pópulum non credéntem, et con-

I HAVE seen iniquity and strife in the city. Behold, the glory of the Cross. That Cross is established now above the brows of kings, which once enemies did deride. The end hath shown the measure of its power: He hath conquered the world, not with a sword, but with wood. The ene-mies of God thought the Cross a meet ob-ject of insult and ridicule, yea, they stood before it, wagging their heads and saying: If He be the Son of God, let Him come down from the Cross! And He stretched forth His Hands unto a disobedient and tradicentem. Si enim justus est, qui ex fide vivit; iniquus est, qui non habet fidem. Quod ergo hic ait, iniquitatem : perfidiam intellige. Videbat ergo Dominus in civitate iniquitatem et contradictionem, et extendebat manus suas ad populum non credentem, et contradicentem : et tamen et ipsos exspectans dicebat : Pater, ignosce illis, quia nesciunt quid faciunt.

gainsaying people. If he is just which liveth by faith, he is unjust that hath not faith. Therefore where is written iniquity we may understand unbelief. The Lord therefore saith that He saw iniquity and strife in the city, and that He stretched forth His Hands unto that disobedient and gainsaying people, and yet, looking upon the very same, He said: Father, forgive them, for they know not what they do.

De Epístola prima beáti Pauli Apóstoli ad Corínthios

LESSON VII

Chap. II, 17-34

HOC autem præcípíio : non laudans quod non in mélius, sed in detérius convenítis. Primum quidem conveniéntibus vobis in Ecclésiam, áudio scissúras esse inter vos, et ex parte credo. Nam opórtet et háereses esse, ut et qui probáti sunt, manifesti fiant in vobis. Conveniéntibus ergo vobis in unum, jam non est Domínicam cenam manducáre. Unusquisque enim suam cenam præsumit ad manducándum. Et álius quidem ésurit, álius autem ébrius est. Numquid domos non habétis ad manducándum et bibéndum? aut Ecclésiam Dei contémnitis, et confúnditis eos, qui non habent? Quid dicam vobis? Laudo vos? In hoc non laudo.

NOW this I ordain: not praising you, that you come together not for the better, but for the worse. For first of all I hear that when you come together in the church, there are schisms among you; and in part I believe it. For there must be also heresies: that they also, who are approved, may be made manifest among you. When you come therefore together into one place, it is not now to eat the Lord's supper. For every one taketh before his own supper to eat. And one indeed is hungry and another is drunk. What, have you not houses to eat and to drink in? Or despise ye the church of God; and put them to shame that have not? What shall I say to you? Do I praise you? In this I praise you not.

1. Let us sing to the Lord: for he is gloriously magnified, the horse and the rider he hath thrown into the sea.

2. The Lord is my strength and my praise, and he is become salvation to me:

3. He is my God and I will glorify him: the God of my father, and I will exalt him.

4. The Lord is as a man of war, Almighty is his name. Pharaoh's chariots and his army he hath cast into the sea:

5. His chosen captains are drowned in the Red Sea. The depths have covered them, they are sunk to the bottom like a stone.

6. Thy right hand, O Lord, is magnified in strength: thy right hand, O Lord, hath slain the enemy. And in the multitude of thy glory thou hast put down thy adversaries:

7. Thou hast sent thy wrath, which hath devoured them like stubble. And with the blast of thy anger the waters were gathered together:

8. The flowing water stood, the depths were gathered together in the midst of the sea.

9. The enemy said: I will pursue and overtake, I will divide the spoils, my soul shall have its fill:

10. I will draw my sword, my hand shall slay them.

11. Thy wind blew and the sea covered them:
they sunk as lead in the mighty waters.

12. Who is like to thee, among the strong, O
Lord? who is like to thee, glorious in holiness,

13. Extendísti manum tuam, et devorávit eos terra. * Dux fuísti in misericórdia tua pópulo quem redemísti :

14. Et portásti eum in fortitúdine tua, * ad habitáculum sanctum tuum.

15. Ascendérunt pópuli, et iráti sunt : * dolóres obtinuérunt habitatóres Philísthiim.

16. Tunc conturbáti sunt príncipes Edom, † robústos Moab obtínuit tremor : * obriguérunt omnes habitatóres Chánaan.

17. Irruat super eos formído et pavor, * in magnitúdine bráchii tui :

18. Fiant immóbiles quasi lapis, † donec pertránseat pópulus tuus, Dómine, * donec pertránseat pópulus tuus iste, quem possedísti.

19. Introdúces eos, et plantábis in monte hereditátis tuæ, * firmíssimo habitáculo tuo, quod operátus es, Dómine :

20. Sanctuárium tuum, Dómine, quod firmavérunt manus tuæ. * Dóminus regnábit in ætérum et ultra.

21. Ingréssus est enim eques Phárao cum cúrribus et equítibus ejus in mare : * et redúxit super eos Dóminus aquas maris :

22. Fílii autem Israël ambulavérunt per siccum * in médio ejus.

terrible and praiseworthy, doing wonders?

13. Thou stretchedst forth thy hand, and the earth swallowed them. In thy mercy thou hast been a leader to the people which thou hast redeemed:

14. And in thy strength thou hast carried them to thy holy habitation.

15. Nations rose up, and were angry: sorrows took hold on the inhabitants of Philisthiim.

16. Then were the princes of Edom troubled, trembling seized on the stout men of Moab: all the inhabitants of Chanaan became stiff.

17. Let fear and dread fall upon them, in the greatness of thy arm:

18. Let them become unmovable as a stone, until thy people, O Lord, pass by: until this thy people pass by, which thou hast possessed.

19. Thou shalt bring them in, and plant them in the mountain of thy inheritance, in thy most firm habitation which thou hast made, O Lord;

20. Thy sanctuary, O Lord, which thy hands have established. The Lord shall reign for ever and ever.

21. For Pharaoh went in on horseback with his chariots and horsemen into the sea: and the Lord brought back upon them the waters of the sea:

22. But the children of Israel walked on dry ground in the midst thereof.

the ground, they have held their peace: they have sprinkled their heads with dust, they are girded with haircloth, the virgins of Jerusalem hang down their heads to the ground. Caph. Mine eyes have failed with weeping, my bowels are troubled: my liver is poured out upon the earth, for the destruction of the daughter of my people, when the children, and the sucklings fainted away in the streets of the city. LESSON IV

PROTEXÍSTI me, Deus, a convéntu malignántium, a multitudíne operántium iniquitátem. Jam ipsum caput nostrum intueámur. Multi mártýres tália passi sunt, sed nihil sic elúcet, quómodo caput mártýrum : ibi mélius intuémur, quod illi expérti sunt. Protéctus est a multitudíne malignántium, protegénse se Deo, protegénse carnem suam ipso Fílio, et hómíne, quem gerébat : quia fílius hómínis est, et Fílius Dei est : Fílius Dei, propter formam Dei : fílius hómínis, propter formam servi, habens in potestáte pónere ánimam suam, et recípere eam. Quid ei potuerunt fácere inimíci? Occidérunt corpus, ánimam non occidérunt. Inténdite. Parum ergo erat, Dóminum hortári mártýres verbo, nisi firmáret exémplo.

On Ps. 63, at verse 2

THOU hast protected me, O God, from the counsel of the wicked, from the insurrection of the workers of iniquity. Now let us contemplate our Head himself. Many martyrs have suffered like things, but naught shineth out in such wise as the Head of the Martyrs; in Him we best perceive what they endured. He was protected from the counsel of the wicked; God protected himself; the Very Son, with the manhood which he took upon him, protected his own flesh; because He is the Son of man, and the Son of God; Son of God, being in the form of God; Son of man, being in the form of a servant, having power to lay down his life, and to take it up again. What then could his enemies do against him? They killed the Body, the Soul they killed not. Give heed: It had been a small thing for the Lord to encourage Martyrs by His word, if He had not also strengthened them by His example.

NOSTIS qui convéntus erat malignántium Judæórum, et quæ multitúdo erat operántium iniquitátem. Quam iniquitátem? Quia voluérunt occídere Dóminum Jesum Christum. Tanta ópera bona, inquit, osténdi vobis : propter quod horum me vultis occídere? Pértulit omnes infirmos eórum, curávit omnes lánguidos eórum, prædicávit regnum cælórum, non tácuit vítia eórum, ut ipsa pótius eis displicérent, non médicus, a quo sanabántur. His ómnibus curatió nibus ejus ingrátí, tamquam multa febre phrenétici, insaniéntes in médicum qui vénerat curáre eos, excogitavérunt consílium perdé ndi eum : tamquam ibi voléntes probáre, utrum vere homo sit, qui mori possit, an áliquid super hómínes sit, et mori se non permíttat. Verbum ipsórum agnóscimus in Sapiéntia Salomónis : Morte turpíssima, ínquiunt, condemnémus eum. Interrogémus eum : erit enim respéctus in sermónibus illíus. Si enim vere Fílius Dei est, líberet eum.

YE know what the counsel was of the wicked Jews, and what that insurrection was of the workers of iniquity. What was their iniquity? That they wanted to kill the Lord Jesus Christ. Many good works, saith He, have I showed you; for which of them do you want to kill Me? He had borne with all their weaknesses: He had healed all their diseases: He had preached unto them the kingdom of heaven: He held not his peace at their iniquities, that they might hate them rather than the Physician That came to cure them. And now at last, without gratitude for all the tenderness of His healing love, like men raging in an high delirium, throwing themselves madly on the Physician, Who had come to cure them, they took counsel together how they might kill Him, as if to see if He were a Man and could die, or Something more than a man that would not let Himself die. In the Wisdom of Solomon we recognize their words: Let us condemn Him with a shameful death. Let us examine Him; for, by His own saying, He shall be respected. If He be the Son of God, let Him help Him.

LESSON VI

EXACUÉRUNT tamquam gládium linguas suas. Non dicant Judæi : Non occídimus Christum. Etenim proptérea eum dedérunt júdici Piláto, ut quasi ipsi a morte ejus vídeántur immúnes. Nam cum dixísset eis Pilátus : Vos eum occídite, responderunt : Nobis non licet occídere quemquam. Iniquitátem facínoris sui in júdicem hóminem refúndere volébant : sed numquid Deum júdicem fallébant? Quod fecit Pilátus, in eo ipso quod fecit, aliquántum párticeps fuit : sed in comparatióne illórum, multo ipse innocéntior. Institit enim quantum pótuít, ut illum ex eórum mánibus liberáret : nam proptérea flagellátum prodúxit ad eos. Non persequéndo Dóminum flagellávit, sed eórum furóri satisfácere volens : ut vel sic jam mitéscerent, et desínerent velle occídere, cum flagellátum vidérent. Fecit et hoc. At ubi perseveravérunt, nostis illum lavísse manus, et dixísse, quod ipse non fecísset, mundum se esse a morte illíus. Fecit tamen. Sed si reus, quia fecit vel invítus : illi innocétes, qui coëgérunt ut fáceret? Nullo modo. Sed ille dixit in eum senténtiam, et jussit eum crucifigi, et quasi ipse occídít : et vos, o Judæi, occidístis. Unde occidístis? Gládio línguæ : acuístis enim linguas vestras. Et quando percussístis, nisi quando clamástis : Crucifíge, crucifíge?

THEY whetted their tongue like a sword. Let not the Jews say: We did not kill Christ. For they gave Him over to Pilate the judge, that they themselves might seem free of His death. For when Pilate said unto them, Take ye Him: and kill Him, they answered, It is not lawful for us to put any man to death. They desired to cast the injustice of their wicked deed upon a human judge: but did they deceive God the Judge? In that which Pilate did, he was their accomplice, but in comparison with them, he was much more innocent. Pilate strove as far as he could, to deliver Him out of their hands and therefore ordered Him to be scourged and brought before them. He scourged not the Lord in persecution, but to satisfy their rage: that, perchance, even they might be touched with compassion, and cease to lust for His death, when they saw What He was after the flagellation. Even this effort he made! But when they persisted, ye know how he washed his hands and said that he did it not himself, the he was innocent of His death. Nevertheless he did do it. But if he were guilty who did it against his will, were they innocent who goaded him on to it? No. Pilate gave sentence against Him and commanded Him to be crucified, and thus in a manner slew him. But ye, O ye Jews, ye have killed Him! How did ye kill him? With the sword of the tongue, for ye had whet your tongues. And when smote ye? But when ye cried, Crucify Him! Crucify Him!

reaching unto the division of the soul and whom our speech is. Having therefore a great high priest that hath passed into the heavens, Jesus the Son of God: let us hold fast our confession. For we have not a high priest, who cannot have compassion on our infirmities: but one tempted in all things like as we are, yet without sin.

LESSON VIII

ADEÁMUS ergo cum fidúcia ad thronum grátiae : ut misericórdiam consequámur, et grátiam inveniámus in auxílio opportúno. Omnis namque Póntifex ex homínibus assúptus, pro homínibus constitúitur in iis quæ sunt ad Deum, ut ófferat dona et sacrificia pro peccátis : qui condolére possit iis qui ignórant et errant : quóniam et ipse circúmdatus est infirmitáte : et proptérea debet, quemádmódum pro pópulo, ita étiam pro semetípso offérre pro peccátis.

LET us go therefore with confidence to the throne of grace: that we may obtain mercy, and find grace in seasonable aid. For every high priest taken from among men, is ordained for men in things pertaining to God, that he may offer up gifts and sacrifices for sins: Who can have compassion on them that are ignorant and that err: because he himself also is compassed with infirmity. And therefore he ought, as for the people, so also for himself, to offer for sins.

LESSON IX

NEC quisquam sumit sibi honorem, sed qui vocatur a Deo, tamquam Aaron. Sic et Christus non semetipsum clarificavit ut Pontifex fieret: sed qui locutus est ad eum: Filius meus es tu, ego hodie genui te. Quemadmodum et in alio loco dicit: Tu es sacerdos in æternum secundum ordinem Melchisedech. Qui in diebus carnis suæ, preces supplicationesque ad eum, qui possit illum salvum facere a morte, cum clamore valido et lacrimis, offerens, exauditus est pro sua reverentia. Et quidem cum esset Filius Dei, didicit ex iis quæ passus est, obedientiam: et consummatus, factus est omnibus obtemperantibus sibi causa salutis æternæ, appellatus a Deo Pontifex juxta ordinem Melchisedech.

NEITHER doth any man take the honour to himself, but he that is called by God, as Aaron was. So also Christ glorified not himself to be made a high priest: but he that said unto him: Thou art my Son, today have I begotten thee. As he saith also in another place: Thou art a priest for ever, according to the order of Melchisedech. Who in the days of his flesh, with a strong cry and tears, offering up prayers and supplications to him that was able to save him from death, was heard for his reverence. And whereas indeed he was the Son of God, he learned obedience by the things which he suffered: And being consummated, he became, to all that obey him, the cause of eternal salvation. Called by God a high priest according to the order of Melchisedech.

he hath borne the yoke from his youth. Jod. He shall sit solitary, and hold his peace: because he hath taken it up upon himself. Jod. He shall put his mouth in the dust, if so be there may be hope. Jod. He shall give his cheek to him that striketh him, he shall be filled with reproaches. Remember, O Lord, what is come upon us: consider and behold our reproach. Our inheritance is turned to aliens: our houses to strangers. We are become orphans without a father, our mothers are as widows. We have drunk our water for money: we have bought our wood for a price. We were dragged by our necks, we were weary and no rest was given us. We have given our hand to Egypt and to the Assyrians, that we might be satisfied with bread. Our fathers have sinned, and are no more: and we have borne their iniquities. Servants have ruled over us: there was none to redeem us out of their hand. We fetched our bread at the peril of our lives, because of the sword in the desert. Our skin was burnt as an oven, by reason of the violence of the famine. They oppressed the women in Sion, and the virgins in the cities of Juda. Jerusalem! Jerusalem! Return unto the Lord thy God.

LESSON IV

ACCÉDET homo ad cor altum, et exaltábitur Deus. Illi dixerunt : Quis nos videbit? Defecerunt scrutántes scrutatiónes, consília mala. Accéssit homo ad ipsa consília, passus est se tenéri ut homo. Non enim tenerétur nisi homo, aut viderétur nisi homo, aut cæderétur nisi homo, aut crucifigerétur aut more-rétur nisi homo. Accéssit ergo homo ad illas omnes passiónes, quæ in illo nihil valérent, nisi esset homo. Sed si ille non esset homo, non liberarétur homo. Accéssit homo ad cor altum, id est, cor secrétum, objíciens aspéctibus húmanis hóminem, servans intus Deum : celans formam Dei, in qua æquális est Patri, et ófferens formam servi, qua minor est Patre.

On Ps. 63, at verse 7

MAN shall come to a deep mind and God shall be exalted. They said, Who shall see us? The diligent searchers out of evil counsels have failed. A Man came to these very counsels, and suffered Himself to be taken, as Man. For He had not been taken at all, unless Man, or seen, unless Man, or smitten, unless Man, or crucified, or died, unless Man. Man therefore attained unto all these sufferings, which had not availed against Him, unless He had been a Man. But if He had not been Man, man had not been redeemed. Man came to a deep mind, that is, a secret mind; showing Manhood to men, and keeping Godhead within; veiling the form of God, wherein He is Equal to the Father, and presenting the form of a servant, inferior to the Father.

LESSON VI

POSUÉRUNT custódes mílites ad sepúlcrum. Concússa terra Dóminus resurrexit : mirácula facta sunt tália circa sepúlcrum, ut et ipsi mílites, qui custódes advénerant, testes fierent, si vellent vera nuntiáre. Sed avarítia illa, quæ captivávit discípulum cómitem Christi, captivávit et mílitem custódem sepúlcri. Damus, ínquiunt, vobis pecúniam : et dícite quia vobis dormiéntibus venérunt discípuli ejus, et abstulérunt eum. Vere defecérunt scrutántes scrutatiónes. Quid est quod dixísti, o infélix astútia? Tantúmne déseris lucem consílii pietátis, et in profúnda versútiae demérgeris, ut hoc dicas : Dícite quia vobis dormiéntibus venérunt discípuli ejus, et abstulérunt eum? Dormiéntes testes ádhibes : vere tu ipse obdormísti, qui scrutándo tália defecísti.

THEY set a watch of soldiers over the sepulchre. The earth shook and the Lord arose. Such wonders were wrought about the sepulchre that the very soldiers who kept watch might be witnesses thereto, would they declare the truth. But the same love of money that enslaved that disciple and companion of Christ, enslaved also the soldier guarding the sepulchre. "We will give you money," said the chief priests, "and say ye that His disciples came while ye slept and stole Him away." Verily, the diligent searchers out have failed. What didst thou say, O wretched craft? Wast thou indeed so utterly void of the light of godly wisdom, and confounded in the bottomless pit of thine own falsehood as to speak thus: Say ye that His disciples came while ye slept, and stole Him away? Thou callest upon sleeping witnesses: surely thou wast asleep thyself, who has failed in searching out so notable a matter.

LESSON VII

CHRISTUS assístens Póntifex futurórum bonórum, per ámplius et perféctius tabernáculum, non manufáctum, id est, non huius creatiónis : neque per sánguinem hircórum, aut vitulórum, sed per próprium sánguinem introívit semel in Sancta, æténa redemptióne invénta. Si enim sanguis hircórum et taurórum, et cínis vítulæ aspérsus inquinátos sanctíficat ad emundatiónem carnis : quanto magis sanguis Christi, qui per Spíritum Sanctum semetípsum óbtulit immaculátum Deo, emundábit consciéntiam nostram ab opéribus mórtuis, ad serviéndum Deo vivénti?

Chap. 9, 11-22

CHRIST, being come a high priest of the good things to come, by a greater and more perfect tabernacle not made with hands, that is, not of this creation: Neither by the blood of goats, nor of calves, but by His own blood, entered once into the holies, having obtained eternal redemption. For if the blood of goats and of oxen, and the ashes of a heifer being sprinkled, sanctify such as are defiled, to the cleansing of the flesh: How much more shall the Blood of Christ, who by the Holy Ghost offered Himself spotless unto God, cleanse our conscience from dead works, to serve the living God?

LESSON VIII

ET ideo novi testaménti mediátor est : ut, morte intercedénte, in redemptiónem eárum prævaricatiónum, quæ erant sub prióri testaménto, repromissióem accípiant, qui vocáti sunt æternæ hereditátis. Ubi enim testaméntum est : mors necesse est intercedat testatóris. Testaméntum enim in mórtuis confirmátum est : alióquin nondum valet, dum vivit qui testátus est. Unde nec primum quidem sine ságuine dedicátum est.

AND therefore He is the Mediator of the New Testament: that by means of His Death, for the redemption of those transgressions, which were under the former Testament, they that are called may receive the promise of eternal inheritance. For where there is a testament, the death of the testator must of necessity intervene. For a testament comes into force through death: otherwise it is as yet of no strength, whilst the testator liveth. Whereupon neither was the first indeed dedicated without blood.

LESSON IX

LECTO enim omni mandáto legis a Móyse univérso pópulo : accípiens sánguinem vitulórum, et hircórum, cum aqua et lana cocínea, et hyssópo : ipsum quoque librum, et omnem populum aspérsit dicens : Hic sanguis testaménti, quod mandávit ad vos Deus. The tabernacle also and all the vessels of the ministry, in like manner, he sprinkled with blood. 10. I will recount to thee all my years in the bit-terness of my soul.

11. O Lord, if man's life be such, and the life of my spirit be in such things as these, thou shalt correct me, and make me to live. Behold in peace is my bitterness most bitter:

12. But thou hast delivered my soul that it should not perish, thou hast cast all my sins be-hind thy back.

13. For hell shall not confess to thee, neither shall death praise thee: nor shall they that go down into the pit, look for thy truth.

14. The living, the living, he shall give praise to thee, as I do this day: the father shall make thy truth known to the children.

15. O Lord, save me, and we will sing our psalms all the days of our life in the house of the Lord.

When the antiphon Christus factus est is finished, Pater noster is said, in silence throughout.

Then is sung, without Orémus, to the ferial tone B (or the ancient simple tone) :

CONCÉDE, quæsumus, omnipotens Deus : † ut qui Fílii tui resurrectionem devóta expectatióne prævenimus; * ejúsdem resurrectionis glóriam consequámur. And in silence : Per eúmdem Dóminum ...

GRANT, we beseech thee, O Almighty God: that we who anticipate the resurrection of thy Son with pious expectation, may obtain the glory of the same resurrection.

All then rise and retire in silence.

The flex is made towards the middle of each sentence; it is omitted only if the sentence is very short. In the longer sentences, the flex may be repeated several times if the sense allows this being done. The metrum does not occur in this tone.

The flex is made by lowering the voice on the last syllable only, even if the penultimate syllable be not accented. At the full stop, the voice is lowered on the penultimate syllable, if this be short.

At colons that introduce speech, whether quoted or indirect, a flex is not made, but instead the last syllable is lengthened, and a slight pause added:

Et di-xit : Sicut scriptum est : Audí-te domus David :

The interrogation has only one modulation, that which has already been indicated for the Prophecy. It is the same for the Epistle, the Gospel, and the Lessons. Very short interrogative sentences are sung as follows:

respóndit : Quid vis fi-li? Quamóbrem? Sed quid? Quæ?

However, the interrogatory formula must never be used at the end, unless the Tu autem. is to follow. If an interrogation occurs at the end of the text to which the Tu autem. is not to be added, the ordinary conditional formula must be used.

This can be sung in place of the the antiphon Christus factus est. at the end of Lauds on any of the three nights, singing the text indicated for that night.
