

Vespers with Gregorian Chant
for
Sundays & Holy Days

Vespers with Gregorian Chant for Sundays & Holy Days: newly typeset, based on The Liber Usualis, edited by the Benedictines of Solesmes (Desclee Company, 1961).

Many thanks to Elie Roux for creating Gregorio, to all the people answering questions on the Gregorio forums, to Olivier Berton for creating GregoBase (<http://gregobase.selapa.net>) which makes it much easier to find all the chant that Andrew Hinkley and others have contributed to the public domain. Also many thanks to my brother Benjamin, whose website (<http://bbloomf.github.io/jgabc>) makes it incredibly easy to typeset the psalms and substantially easier than otherwise to typeset Gregorian chant with Gregorio.

January 2021.

Note that the 4A* and 8G* endings are optional. If you do not wish to employ the optional ending, just treat it like 4A or 8G by simply ending on the penultimate note, that is, the LA for 4A or the SOL for 8G.

Then for the sections with a brace above, instead of droneing, the melody is sung in parallel, either a fifth above or below. The drone should only be interrupted at the double bars.

hath done all things whatsoever he would.

12. The idols of the gentiles are silver and gold, the works of the hands of men.

13. They have mouths and speak
not: they have eyes and see not.

14. They have ears and hear not:
they have noses and smell not.

15. They have hands and feel not:
they have feet and walk not: neither shall they cry out through their throat.

16. Let them that make them become like unto them: and all such as trust in them.

17. The house of Israel hath hoped in the Lord: he is their helper and their protector.

18. The house of Aaron hath hoped in the Lord: he is their helper

20. The Lord hath been mindful of us, and hath blessed us.

21. He hath blessed the house of Israel: he hath blessed the house of Aaron.

22. He hath blessed all that fear
the Lord, both little and great.

23. May the Lord add blessings upon you: upon you, and upon your children.

24. Blessed be you of the Lord,
who made heaven and earth.

25. The heaven of heaven is the Lord's: but the earth he has given to the children of men.

26. The dead shall not praise thee,
O Lord: nor any of them that go down to hell.

27. But we that live bless the Lord:

2. What wond'rous pity Thee
o'ercame To make our guilty load Thine own, And, sinless, suffer death and shame, For our transgressions to atone!

wide, Didst all the captive souls un-chain; And thence to Thy dread Father's side With glorious pomp ascend again.

4. O still may pity Thee compel
To heal the wounds of which we die;
And take us in Thy light to dwell,
Who for Thy blissful Presence sigh.

the skies; Our Joy when sorrow fills Prize. Amen.

MISIT Heródes rex manus, ut affligeret quosdam de ecclésia. † Occidit autem Jacóbum fratrem Joánnis gládio. * Videns autem quia placéret Judáis, appó-suit ut apprehénderet et Petrum.

HEROD the King stretched forth his hands to afflict some of the Church: and he killed James, the brother of John, with the sword; and seeing that it pleased the Jews, he proceeded to take up Peter also.

Prayers for the Forty Hours

At the Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament :

After Mass, the Celebrant, at the sedilia, having taken off the chasuble and maniple and put on a cope, puts incense into two thuribles, giving no blessing.

Kneeling on the lowest step of the altar, he incenses the Blessed Sacrament. Then he receives the humeral veil.

The Procession follows, while Pange, lingua is sung.

After the Procession, the Deacon places the Blessed Sacrament on the throne, the Celebrant meanwhile putting off the humeral veil. Tantum ergo Sacraméntum is then sung; at Genitóri the Blessed Sacrament is incensed in the usual way.

When Tantum ergo is ended, Panem de cælo etc. is not said, but the Cantors at once begin the Litany of the Saints, p. 446.

On the day of Deposition :

After Mass, the Celebrant, at the sedilia, takes off chasuble and maniple, and puts on a cope. The Ministers lay aside their maniples; and all return to the altar.

The Litany of the Saints, p. 446, is sung, and the following prayer as far as the ¶. Dómine exáudi oratióne meam inclusive.

The Celebrant stands and puts incense into two thuribles, giving no blessing. He incenses the Blessed Sacrament, and receives the humeral veil.

The Procession follows while Pange, lingua is sung.

After the Procession the Blessed Sacrament is placed on the altar, and Tantum ergo is sung. At Genitóri the Celebrant puts incense into a thurible, and incenses the Blessed Sacrament.

At the end of Tantum ergo there follows Panem de cælo etc. The Celebrant stands, and (omitting Dóminus vobíscum) sings all the prescribed prayers. Afterwards he again kneels down and sings the ¶. Dómine exáudi etc. The Cantors sing Exáudiat nos etc., and the Celebrant adds Fidélium ánimæ etc. on a lower note.

Finally the Celebrant receives the humeral veil and gives Benediction in the usual way.

1. DEUS, qui nobis sub Sacramén-to mirábili passiónis tuæ memóriam reliquísti : † tríbue, quásumus, ita nos Córporis et Sángui-nis tui sacra mystéria venerári; * ut redemptiónis tuæ fructum in nobis júgiter sentiámus.

From Advent until Christmas :

2. DEUS, qui de beátæ Mariæ Virginis útero Verbum tuum, Angelo nuntiánte, carnem

O God, who under a wonder-ful Sacrament hast left us a memorial of Thy Passion; grant us, we beseech Thee, so to venerate the sacred mysteries of Thy Body and Blood, that we may ever feel within us the fruit of Thy redemption.

O God, who wast pleased that, at the message of an Angel, Thy Word should take flesh in the suscípere voluísti : † præsta suplícibus tuis; * ut, qui vere eam Genitícem Dei crédimus, ejus apud te intercessióníbus adjuvémur.

womb of the blessed Virgin Mary, grant to us Thy suppliants, that we, who believe her to be truly the Mother of God, may be helped by her intercession with Thee.

From Christmas to the Purification :

DEUS, qui salútis æternæ, béatae Maríæ virginítate fecúnda, humáno géneri præmia præstisti : † tríbue, quásumus; ut ipsam pro nobis intercédere sentiámus, * per quam merúimus auctórem vitæ suscípere, Dóminum nostrum Iesum Christum Fílium tuum.

O GOD, who through the fruitful virginity of blessed Mary hast given to mankind the rewards of eternal salvation, grant, we beseech Thee, that we may experience her intercession for us through whom we were made worthy to receive the Author of life, our Lord Jesus Christ Thy Son.

From the Purification until Advent, except during Paschal Time :

CONCEDE nos fámulos tuos, quásumus, Dómine Deus, perpétua mentis et córporis sanitáte gaudére : † et gloriósa beatæ Maríæ semper Vírginis intercessióne, * a præsénti liberári tristitia, et æterna pérfrui lätitia.

GRANT to us Thy servants, we beseech Thee, O Lord God, that we may enjoy perpetual health of mind and body: and through the intercession of blessed Mary ever Virgin be delivered from present sorrow and possess eternal joy.

In Paschal Time :

DEUS, qui per resurrectiōnem Filii tui, Dómini nostri Iesu Christi, mundum läftificare dignátus es : † præsta, quásumus; ut, per ejus Genitícem Vírginem Maríam * perpétua capiámus gáudia vitæ.

O GOD, who didst vouchsafe to give joy to the world through the Resurrection of Thy Son our Lord Jesus Christ: grant, we beseech Thee, that, through His Mother, the Virgin Mary, we may obtain the joys of everlasting life.

3. OMNIPOTENS, sempitérne Deus, miserére fámulo tuo Pontífici nostro N., † et dírige eum secúndum tuam cleméntiam in viam salútis æternæ : * ut, te donánte, tibi plácita cúpiat, et tota virtúte perficiat.

ALMIGHTY, everlasting God, have mercy upon Thy servant N., our Sovereign Pontiff, and direct him according to Thy clemency into the way of eternal salvation, that by Thy grace he may desire those things pleasing to Thee and perform them with all his strength.

4. DEUS, refúgium nostrum, et virtus: † adésto piis Ecclésiæ tuæ précibus, auctor ipse pietatis, et præsta; * ut, quod fidéliter pétimus, efficáciter consequámur.

5. OMNIPOTENS, sempitérne Deus, qui vivórum domináris simul et mortuórum, omniúmque miseréris, quos tuos fide et ópere futúros esse prænóscis: † te súpplices exorámus; ut, pro quibus effúndere preces decrévimus, quosque vel præsens sáculum adhuc in carne rétinet, vel futúrum jam exútos córpore suscépit, * intercedéntibus ómnibus Sanctis tuis, pietatis tuæ cleméntia ómnium delictórum suórum véniām consequántur. Per Dóminum nostrum Iesum Christum, Fílium tuum: Qui tecum vivit et regnat in unitáte Spíritus Sancti Deus, per ómnia sácula sáculórum. R. Amen.

O GOD, our refuge and strength, Author of devotedness, give ear to the devoted prayers of Thy Church, and grant: that we may obtain in deed what we ask with faith.

ALMIGHTY, everlasting God, who hast dominion over the living and the dead, and art merciful to all, of whom Thou fore-knowest that they will be Thine by faith and good works: we humbly beseech Thee, that they for whom we intend to pour forth our prayers, whether this present world still detain them in the flesh, or the world to come hath already received them out of their bodies, may, through the intercession of all Thy Saints, by the clemency of Thy goodness, obtain the remission of all their sins. Through our Lord Jesus Christ Thy Son, Who liveth and reigneth with Thee in the unity of The Holy Spirit, God, world without end. R. Amen.

The Celebrant kneels down and sings:

- ¶. Dómine, exáudi oratióne meam.
R. Et clamor meus ad te véniat.

The Cantors (where it is the custom) sing:

- ¶. Exáudiat nos omnípotens et misericors Dóminus.
R. Et custódiat nos semper. Amen.

The Celebrant sings on a lower note:

- ¶. Fidélium ánimæ per misericordiam Dei requiéscant in pace.
R. Amen.

On the day of Exposition, after a short prayer in silence, the Celebrant and Ministers withdraw.

On the day of Deposition, Benediction follows.
